SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen,
TO THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH,

From May 1st, 1871, to April 1st, 1872.

THE PRESBYTERIAN COMMITTEE OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN respectfully presents its Second Annual Report. It does so with mingled feelings of pleasure and sadness—of pleasure, in that, among the lowly and neglected, it has been permitted to accomplish so much in the cause of Him who, in evidence of His divine commission, said, “the poor have the Gospel preached to them;” of sadness, in that while still other fields are “white already to harvest,” and laborers constantly asking to enter and reap, it has not been able to send them.

In accordance with the recommendation of the last General Assembly, our Committee closes its present “Fiscal year on the first day of April,” and therefore reports for but eleven months.

The moneys here credited to Freedmen include only the amounts reported to the Committee, as given in support of our Missionaries among them, and for the various other objects which pertain to church-work in this field. A portion of the amount thus reported may have gone to other treasuries of our church, but just how much we cannot tell. In any case, the figures named may be considered as approximating the actual amount given in money by these churches and schools for benevolent purposes. Much more has been done by them in labor, in the erection of churches, &c., upon which we have no means of placing anything like a correctly estimated cash value.

A number of boxes of good second-hand and other clothing, and good second-hand Sabbath-school and other books have been given; and we think that if it was generally realized how much these are needed, and how gratefully they are received by these poor people, such donations would be greatly increased.

We have been very desirous that this Report should show the entire liquidation of the heavy indebtedness found upon the work at the organization of the present Committee; and estimates made at the opening of the year went to show, that if as much money should be placed at the disposal of the Committee this year as was last, not only the balance of that, but all other indebtedness of the work, save that upon real estate, would be removed. But while the current expenses of work have been kept even below the estimate, the amount of money which it was thought the Committee might reasonably expect, has not been received; and, consequently, that which was so earnestly desired in this behalf has not, as yet, been attained. It is still hoped, however, that the balance of the old indebtedness, at least, can now be removed in a short period.

Trusting entirely to pastors and sessions to secure funds for our work, we have employed no financial agent in the past year.

MISSIONARIES.

These are preachers, catechists and teachers; and in the work under care of the Committee the past year, the number of these is as follows:

Ordained Ministers, of whom 17 are colored,.....	.....	33

Catechists, 26 all "	.....	26
Teachers—males— 8 "	.....	8
" females, of whom 11 are " .....	45	53

The monthly reports from these Missionaries manifest commendable diligence in their work, which God has continued to crown with a very encouraging degree of success.

DECEASED.—Rev. J. H. BATES, Superintendent of Wallingford Academy, and other work of our Mission at Charleston, S. C., departed this life May 10, 1871, at Glenn's Springs, S. C., where he had gone but a week previous, in hope of benefiting a constitution deeply impaired by long-continued chronic disease. He died among strangers, attended only by a colored boy who had accompanied him. Thus a faithful missionary rests from his labors.

Of church buildings, 3 have been completed during the year, 12 are incomplete, and the whole number reported is 77, upon four of which there is an indebtedness of $4,728. Belonging to these are 10 manses or homes, all of which are free from debt. The united value of these churches, manses and homes is estimated at $86,411. This does not include the buildings of Biddle Memorial Institute, and Wallingford Academy.

The Committee has this year addressed a letter to each church under its care, for the purpose of securing systematic giving by each in support of its minister. The result, thus far, is not without encouragement. There is a general admission of the reasonableness of the request: and 51 churches report $1,195.50 raised for this purpose, which is just this amount saved to our Treasury.

S C H O O L S .

Whole number of day-schools,.....	38

"        "      night-schools,.....	14

The past winter has been unusually severe in the South; and this, together with the lack of clothing necessary to meet such an emergency, has doubtless caused the number of scholars reported to be less, in both Sabbath and day-schools, than it otherwise would have been.

Night-schools are not required by our Committee. They are an outgrowth from the wants of the people, their anxiety to learn, and the sympathy of their teachers, and are usually an overtax upon the time and strength of the teacher, which we do not feel at liberty to encourage.

The eagerness of the freedmen in general to enjoy the educational advantages which our schools afford, still continues, and their instructions are sought by day and by night, by the young and the old, by children of five, and parents of sixty. To see the child of five take its place in spelling, reading and writing-classes, with scholars of twenty, and the man and woman of gray hairs with those in A, B, C; and when needful labor will not allow time by day, taking from the hours needful for sleep, that even in old age they may attain at least a little of that which the forced condition of their early life forbade, is both interesting and encouraging, alike to teachers and supporters of our work among this long-neglected people; and all the more, that to learn to read the "Blessed Bible," is evidently a leading motive, especially with the aged.

As a rule, your Committee employs as teachers only members of the Presbyterian Church; and these, in general, seem to realize that their mission is not educational merely, but religious as well, making prayer, praise, Scripture lessons, and catechetical instruction a constant accompaniment to the daily routine of school exercises.

In this missionary spirit of our teachers, as we think, lies at present one, if not the grand power of our work. As a rule, each minister can reach any given church under his care, at best, but every third or fourth Sabbath. And he deals, for the most part, with adults, whose moral and intellectual culture has been but little, and even at this, sadly defective; while our teachers, day by day, week-day and Sabbath-day, in hourly contact with the young, under circumstances that inspire the one with the deepest interest, and the other with the highest regard, have, under God, a power for good, of which perhaps only those familiar with both, have any adequate conception. Hence, it is felt that one great want of our work is, means sufficient to supply every church under our care with a parochial school. At present, not one-half are so supplied, and some of these are not only among the largest, but of the very best material. And by thus failing to educate the children of large bodies of the best element under our control, we not only neglect the children of our own church, but necessarily lose a large amount of influence for good, which we might otherwise exert.

Besides, wherever these are planted, with competent teachers, it affords an opportunity which even in these, as well as in our schools of higher order, some are not slow to embrace, viz: for illiterate colored ministers of other denominations to remedy, in some measure at least, their great want of educational training; but who, in seeking this, will almost necessarily gain—even from an unassuming female missionary—an amount of theological instruction of which they are generally in even greater need; and as well, enjoying the while the advantage of that elevating tendency imparted, as it were, by the very atmosphere by which, in these schools, they are daily surrounded.

THE COUNTY PAROCHIAL SCHOOL, at Chester, S. C., Rev. S. LOOMIS, Superintendent, is well located in the edge of Chester, upon a lot containing one acre and a quarter. Upon this it has a neat two-story frame building, 24 by 44 feet, combining school-rooms, and rooms for a missionary "Home," the former on the first floor, the latter upon the second. Only the main school-room and two rooms of the Home are completed. This, however, makes it tenantable, and the school contains 50 selected pupils.

The special object of this school is to give higher educational advantages to the children of the Presbyterian families of the Chester Mission, containing, at present, seven organized churches. Of the students now in attendance, four have the gospel ministry in view; and three of these, under direction of Mr. LOOMIS, act as catechists in the surrounding churches.

This is a school of much promise, and funds to complete the building, and otherwise carry out its design, would be well bestowed.

A neat, plain church, 24 by 50 feet, has been erected here for the use of this Mission, at a cost of $1,000, the donation of Mrs. A. C. BROWN, of New York city.

THE COUNTY PAROCHIAL SCHOOL, at Winnsboro', S. C., Rev. WILLARD RICHARDSON, Superintendent, occupies a lot containing over an acre, upon the front of which is a comfortable "Home," with pleasant surroundings; upon the rear a good church and school-building, 60 by 33 feet, consisting of three rooms, and between these, other unfinished buildings of less value.

The design of this school is one and the same with that at Chester, and this Mission has about the same number of churches as that. The number of students in attendance the present term is 120, of whom 23 are from a distance, 9 of whom, (young men,) for want of better accommodations on the premises, or means to procure them elsewhere, have lodged in one of the school-rooms—18 by 15 feet—appropriated for this use; and 9 girls, for like reasons, have occupied the old "negro quarters," a light frame "shell."

Of the young men in this school, nine are being trained with a view to the Gospel ministry, and of these five act as catechists in the surrounding churches. Like that at Chester, this school is also one of much promise; and whoever will appropriate funds to put the old negro quarters, and other "shells," (upon the lot) now untenantable, into rooms of a reasonable degree of convenience and comfort, will make a useful investment.

For this Mission, also, Mrs. A. C. BROWN, of New York city, is having a neat church erected at Ridgeway, a growing village on the C. C. & A. R. Road, at a point 12 miles south of Winnsboro', where this R. R. Company has generously donated to this church a lot of about five acres.

WALLINGFORD ACADEMY, located in Charleston, S. C., and under the Superintendence of Rev. Wm. A. PATTON, has its name from that of the departed husband of Mrs. E. G. WALLINGFORD, whose generous contribution secured its valuable site, free of all incumbrance. This site is 40 by about 190 feet, and extends entirely through between two streets.

The main building, a good two-story frame, 40 by 80 feet, has four good school-rooms, a hall between each two, and a rear recitation-room, with vestibule and portico on the street front. The entire space over the four rooms and vestibule is fitted up and occupied as a church.

A "Home" belonging to it, and fronting on the opposite street, is a substantial frame, 23 by 40 feet, and contains twelve small but convenient rooms. The whole property—lot and buildings—is valued at $13,000. The number of pupils enrolled the present term is 198.

The Superintendent has charge also of the Wallingford church ; and there being a large population of colored Presbyterians in Charleston and vicinity, this academy has a wide field for great usefulness, and should be carefully fostered. It is clear of debt, but has neither endowment fund nor philosophical apparatus.

SCOTIA SEMINARY is located at Concord, Cabarras County, N. C., Rev. L. DORLAND, Superintendent. Its design, as expressed in its charter, is "to educate colored girls, in Religion, and in the Arts and Sciences usually taught in Seminaries of a high order; and in those domestic duties which belong to the highest type of wife, mother, and teacher." It was designed, and its location selected, by the "General Assembly's Committee on Freedmen," over three years ago; but funds were entirely wanting until about eighteen months since, when, chiefly by the liberality of MATTHEW SCOTT, Esq., of Muskingum county, Ohio, the present Committee was encouraged to authorize the purchase of a half-acre lot, with a Manse, or Home, and the erection of a small seminary building thereon. This building is but 24 by 40 feet, and with other apartments improvised on the premises, affords accommodations for thirty-two boarders, and with the day-scholars, 64 pupils, whose general good behavior, and proficiency in study, are very encouraging. They are taught to cut, make and mend their own clothing; also finer needle-work; and they perform the entire household work of the institution, including cooking, washing, ironing, &c.; all of which is so systematized that each has a different work to do regularly for one month, when the whole is re-arranged for another month; and these duties are never allowed to trench upon the hours assigned to study and recitation. This systematic training is of great value to those whose previous condition naturally induced careless habits.

The boarders have a common table, and at present prices, one dollar per week, each, covers the cost of boarding, light and fuel, making the expence of the whole term of eight months but thirty-two dollars.

The new building cost about $1,000; and with furniture, original purchase, and repairs, the cost of whole property is estimated at $2,081.82.

There are funds on hand for the purchase of additional grounds for a large permanent building, such as the design and prospects of the Seminary demand; and for this purpose $1,000, each, are offered on the part of two individuals; provided that five others' can be found who will each give a like sum. A generous offer, which we trust may soon be as generously met. Endowment funds should follow. Scholarships and partial scholarships are constantly needed to sustain those who, though anxious to obtain an education, have not the means of self-support. And supplies of ladies' good second-hand wearing apparel, to be worn as sent, or cut and made over by the girls for their own use, are a very desirable donation. This Seminary is chartered by the Governor of the State, is subject to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and is the only one of its kind in our work, or, so far as we know, in any other; and being one of so great promise in elevating the daughters of the poor and neglected, should surely be well established and sustained.

BIDDLE MEMORIAL INSTITUTE, located at Charlotte, N. C., is designed for the training of colored preachers, catechists, and teachers, of their own race. For some time an addition to the corps of instructors here has been a want deeply felt, especially by its President, who, in addition to the care of the Institute, was burdened also with that of 14 neighboring churches. This want, we are pleased to state, has lately been supplied, in our having secured the services of Rev. JOHN H. SHEDD, returned Missionary from Persia, whose praise "is throughout all the churches;" and Mr. S. J. BEATTY, a late graduate, of high standing, in the Western Theological Seminary.

The Faculty now consists of Rev. S. MATTOON, D. D., President; Rev. JOHN H. SHEDD, Professor; Rev. T. C. PERRY, and Mr. S. J. BEATTY, Assistant Professors.

Its name was given in honor of Maj. HENRY J. BIDDLE, whose widow was a liberal donor for its founding, and continues to be one of its most generous benefactors. It occupies a plat of eight acres, the generous gift of Col. W. R. MYERS, a citizen of Charlotte. The site is beautiful, on an eminence overlooking the city, and about three quarters of a mile from its limits. The buildings consist of the Institute, a substantial frame, 50 by 54 feet, affording school-room for over one hundred students, with dormitories and refectory for thirty to forty; two neat and commodious houses for Professors, and a separate dormitory of four rooms for pupils. These buildings are free from debt. The whole lot is neatly enclosed, and the money paid for the buildings, added to the value of property donated, amounts to over $13,000. Its Board of Trustees is a legally constituted corporate body, empowered to hold the property of the Institute, in trust for the Presbyterian Church of the United States. Through the efforts of its President, a partial endowment of one professorship has been secured, and its completion, with the endowment of at least one other, at an early day, is exceedingly desirable. Among other wants, are scholarships of $100 for a single year, or for each of a number of years consecutively; a general fund to aid students who can support themselves for but part of a single term; an additional dormitory; and supplies of bedding and substantial clothing—the latter being in constant demand.

This Institute reports 117 students enrolled the present term, of whom 59 are professing Christians, and 30 are candidates for the Gospel ministry; and being established for the special purpose of teaching the teachers of the freedmen, occupies a position of the very highest importance in the Committee's work; and now, that so full a corps of professors has been obtained, the securing of additional rooms becomes a pressing necessity, the meeting of which cannot be long deferred without very seriously hindering its prosperity and usefulness; and we earnestly commend its wants to the liberality of those who would further its best interests.

Seventeen of the students here, under direction of the President, labor as catechists in the surrounding churches, walking from five to ten miles to and from their appointed places of service. To such of these as are not otherwise aided, the Committee pays a small monthly salary, the amount being barely sufficient to enable them to enjoy the benefits of the Institute.

The teachers of our parochial schools are required to ask of each pupil a small tuition fee of not less than ten cents per week, and to collect the same, so far as practicable, where doing so may not seem oppressive, the amount to be reported monthly to the office of the Committee. In this way nearly every school has been induced to do something towards self-support, and the total amount reported as thus raised during the six months of the present school term, up to April 1st, is $920.52.

V I S I T A T I O N.

Inasmuch as two years had elapsed since the Secretary of our Committee had visited any of our Missions, and those added by reunion to the older portion of the work had never been seen by him at all, by direction of the Committee he visited the entire field during the past winter, the tour requiring nearly 5,000 miles travel, and an absence of about ten weeks. And we wish here to record the readiness with which, at our request, the officers of Southern railroads afforded him the courtesies usually accorded, in the North at least, only to ministers residing on or near a Road, thus enabling him to reduce the whole expense of the entire journey to $250.

In this tour he visited every minister in our employ, saw nearly all the catechists and teachers, preached frequently to our churches, made numerous addresses in our day and Sabbath-schools, and (save in the case of a few vacant churches, and the field of one absent minister) took careful notes, in a permanent form, of each church under our care; and, for the most part, under the following heads: 1. Church; 2. Ground; 3. House; 4. Finance; 5. Sabbath-schools; 6. Day-schools; 7. Points for opening new work; 8. pecuniary condition and prospects of the people; thus putting in our possession, among other things, a knowledge of the precise locality of each church, of the colored population by which it is surrounded, (dense or sparse,) the number of its officers, its legal status, and its religious privileges: the amount of ground belonging to each, how secured, and by what title held; its buildings, kind, size, completeness, and financial condition; together with its efforts in self-support; and the same of schools and their property; the most promising points for establishing other churches in the vicinity of those already organized; and the probable ability of the colored populations in which our churches are included, to help themselves. Such information, in a permanent form, we feel, is of great value in conducting a missionary work which includes the preacher, catechist and teacher, with church, school, and home, and all that pertains to the securing and maintenance of each.

C O N C L U S I O N .

We feel that our Church cannot well over-estimate the work in which she is engaged among this poor people, nor her obligations to perform her full part in its execution, nor the encouragement which God has given her in this behalf.

As a people, they are poor indeed, but we are to be imitators of Him who preached the gospel to the poor. Among them are large bodies of Presbyterians and their descendants, and our Church is under peculiar obligations to care for the poor of her own household—and none the less, that out of their poverty and toil have grown largely, the wealth and leisure of many of her sons and daughters.

And, though poor, they are nevertheless a power in the land. Over five millions of people possessed of the elective franchise, numbering thousands in every Southern State, and supreme in two, are a large factor, in the great problems that pertain to our nation's well-being; and as Christian patriots we are in duty bound to do what we can to give them that "intelligence and virtue," without which we may not expect them to use this power wisely or well. Right or wrong, they have it—(which we will not stop to settle,)—and now it is simply a question of What shall guide it?

Poor and lowly they are; but in every dark form of these millions, there is a jewel of priceless value—an immortal soul—to save which we are under the highest obligations known to men or angels. In the more Northern of the Southern States, where farms, in the time of slavery, were comparatively small, and consequently the number of colored people upon each comparatively few, is to be found in larger proportion, the higher type of intelligence and virtue among this people; and among these, for the most part, has the work of our Church hitherto been conducted. But among the immense masses which were herded together on the large plantations further south, there prevails a degree of ignorance and vice that is appalling. And surely as water seeks its own level, so surely must we expect these to reach still lower depths, unless that which alone has power to elevate and purify shall be given them.

The Bible and the spelling book are the only remedy. And among all the workers in this broad field, we believe that the work of none—however good—has combined so closely as ours, these two things—the Church and the School; and God has given us a rich reward. Wherever it has been established, its marked influence for good is acknowledged by all; and in the conversion of souls—so far as human judgment can go—God has blessed this work of our Church with a success, which gives an average to each Church planted, far beyond that so given in all her other fields combined.

Surely then it is high time that her work in this field should cease to be limited, as it has been for years, to its present boundaries; high time that it should be carried “into the regions beyond”—and none the less that the Papal Church is heralding her Missions—actual and prospective—and through the political press appeals to a generous public for aid “to preach the Catholic faith and morals * * * to the emancipated slaves of the Southern States.” With a full sense then of what we owe to this people, of the neglect to which they have hitherto been subject, of their present position and power, of their ignorance and their vice, and yet withal the eagerness of very many for a better condition, we feel that our Church should not fail to go forward in a work which God has made so successful in the past, and thus so hopeful for the future. Ridding herself entirely of the natural tendency of the wrongs of generations to lead to the feeling that if some must be neglected, then first the freedmen, let her do her might to enlighten, elevate, purify—to give them that liberty wherewith Christ makes his people free, and so lift these lowly people to a higher life here; and to that life hereafter in which neither color nor past condition will make any distinction, but all alike will be the sons and daughters of Our Father which is in heaven; where the free and the bond, the white and the colored, shall together and for ever praise their common Redeemer.

Submitted to the General Assembly, at Detroit, Michigan, by order of the Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen, April 22, 1872.

ELLIOT E. SWIFT,
CHAIRMAN.

A. C. McCLELLAND,
SECRETARY.

Action of the General Assembly,

Detroit, May 27th, 1872.

The Standing Committee, to which was referred the Report of the Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen, through its Chairman, Rev. I. N. SPRAGUE, D. D., presented the following, which was unanimously adopted, viz:

Your Committee, after carefully examining the documents and facts laid before them, beg leave to submit the following report:

{Here followed a condensed statement of the work as given in the Report.]

Such is the work among the Freedmen, as prosecuted in our branch of the Church. As we look at the great change which has been wrought in the character and condition of this once poor, ignorant and enslaved people, and when we see them so eager to seize upon every advantage for their mental, moral and social improvement, we cannot but be encouraged to go on with increasing faith, to afford them all the aid in our power. We are already beginning to feel that they are a power in our nation, and for our own temporal prosperity, as well as for their spiritual benefit, we have every possible encouragement to make haste and not be weary in this work of Christian benevolence.

In view of all these facts your Committee feel most cordially to approve of this work among the Freedmen, commanding it to the warm sympathy, earnest prayer and generous patronage of the churches in our connection. From all they have been able to learn, they have full confidence in the wisdom, diligence and economy with which the work is now prosecuted, venturing the assertion that in no one branch of our church work are greater results obtained from the amount expended. The Committee therefore recommend the Assembly to pass the following resolutions:

1. That the Report of the Committee for carrying on this work among the Freedmen, be printed for circulation.
  2. That the work be continued in its present form, from the fact that its peculiar character and special necessities seem to require that it should yet be a work by itself, appealing to the churches for their special attention and support; and prosecuted as a distinct department of benevolent effort.
  3. That, in view of the necessities of this work, the Assembly endorse the application of the Committee for $90,000 to be expended on their field of labor for the coming year: and that to raise this sum each church in our connection be requested to make at least one collection during the year.
  4. That, in view of the fact that so few of the churches tendered their aid to this work during the last year, being only 1,120 out of 4,616, the Presbyteries be requested to have special committees to look after this matter within their bounds.
  5. That the work among the Freedmen be commended to the different Boards of the Church for such aid as they can consistently render.
  6. That it is also recommended that the persons constituting the Committee of Missions for Freedmen the last year, be elected for the ensuing year, making only the change of Rev. Samuel M. Henderson in the place of Rev. P. S. Davies, who has retired, and of James Dickson in the place of Henry Forsyth, who is absent in Europe.
